Introduction

Dawarka Dass Memorial Sai College has been established by Sai Society of Education, Kallar (Nadaun) in the memory of Late Sh. Dawarka Dass Ji, a dedicated educationist and a great philanthropist. This college is being run by the Sai Society of Education, Kallar under self financing scheme.

DDM Sai College of Education (B.Ed. course) was established in 2003. It is affiliated to H.P. University, Shimla and is recognized by NCTE with an intake of 2 units. D.El.Ed. / J.B.T. Course was added in 2007 and affiliated to H.P. Board of School Education, Dharamshala. The intake capacity in D.El.Ed / J.B.T is 50 students.

The Institution believes in developing personality and creativity of students rather merely communicating factual knowledge of course contents to them.

It is located at a distance of about 1 K.M. from Shimla-Dharamshala National Highway-88 in a pollution free area having best academic environment. The college campus is abutted by a road with vast open space and tree groves around. It is situated in the lap of Shiwalik near Maan rivulet, a tributary of Beas river.

College campus consists of mainly two buildings for B.Ed. and D.El.Ed. (JBT) courses. The college is well equipped with conclusive infrastructural facilities like multipurpose hall, conference hall, spacious class rooms, laboratories, well stocked library, computer lab etc. Which are necessary aspects of teaching learning process. There is a spacious playground for outdoor games in the campus.

DDM Sai Collge of Education is headed by an experienced Principal-cum-Director (academics) having long teaching and administrative experience. The faculty of the college is well qualified and have commitment to their profession. It is assured on the part of members of faculty that they will work in unison to achieve the noble cause undertaken by the institution. It aims to be a model institution teacher education.
